Macquarie International Infrastructure Securities Fund (Hedged)

Monthly report – 31 October 2022

Fund Highlights

The Fund returned 8.33% (after fees), outperforming the benchmark which returned 4.77%. As the Fund's foreign currency exposure is hedged, Australian dollar movements do not materially affect its return.

- The major contributors to the strategy's return were Energy Infrastructure, Toll Roads and Airports
- There were no detractors during the month.
- Relative to the S&P Global Infrastructure Index and in local currency terms, major stock contributors to the Fund's return included Aleatica, Archaea and Grupo Aeroportuario Del Centro Norte
- Grupo Aeroportuario Sur-ADR and Grupo Aeroportuario Pac-ADR and CLP Holdings were among the significant detractors.
- Relative to the S&P Global Infrastructure Index, the major positive contributors were positions in the Toll Roads, Energy Infrastructure and Seaports sectors.
- Positions in the Airports, Electric Utilities and Electricity Generation detracted.

During a month of positive performance in global equities and positive performance in listed infrastructure, the strategy outperformed the benchmark.

Key Contributors to Outperformance

- Aleatica, a Mexican toll road company, rose sharply after its majority holder IFM announced its intention to acquire the remaining listed shares at a material premium.
- Archaea, a leader in the production of land fill gas in the US, rose after BP announced its intention to acquire the company at material premium.
- Grupo Aeroportuario Del Centro Norte, a Mexican airport company, rose notably on a continued traffic recovery and relatively attractive valuation compared to its peers.

Key detractors from Outperformance

- Grupo Aeroportuario Sur-ADR, a Mexican airport company, rose on continued traffic recovery.
- Grupo Aeroportuario Pac-ADR, a Mexican airport company, rose on continued traffic recovery.
- CLP Holdings, a Hong Kong utility, fell on the back of rising interest rates which make its fixed return construct relatively less attractive.
