Arrowstreet Global Equity Fund

Macquarie Professional Series

Monthly report – 28 February 2023

Performance summary

- The Fund returned 2.36%, net of fees, in February 2023, compared with a return for the Benchmark of 1.58%, with both developed and emerging markets remaining unsettled by an uncertain economic outlook.
- Most index sectors moved higher across the month, with IT and Industrials recording the largest gains. The largest relative sector contributors to the Fund were Energy, driven by overweight positioning in UK Energy and underweight positioning in US Energy, and Consumer Discretionary, owing to underweight positioning in Chinese Consumer Discretionary. IT was the largest relative detractor, as a result of stock selection in US IT.
- On a country basis, the US was again among the largest contributors to index returns, while China was the only noteworthy detractor. For the Fund, the largest relative contributors were Japan, driven by stock selection in Japanese Industrials; China, owing to underweight positioning in Chinese Consumer Discretionary; and Turkey, due to overweight positioning in Turkish Industrials. The US was the largest relative detractor from the Fund, as a result of stock selection in US IT.
- Arrowstreet employs a quantitative benchmark-aware approach, dynamically taking overweight and underweight positions in countries, sectors, and individual stocks, with the aim of achieving long-term outperformance of its Benchmark. Arrowstreet's core investment style seeks to outperform during a broad range of market environments.
